The Old Ready-Made

The New Ready To-Wear

ALFRED BENJAMIN & CO. 30 years ago there were more old ready made clothes than any other kind. The fabrics were inferior; the designs were fabrics were inferior; the designs were commonplace; the pieces were thrown together with cheap cotton thread; the whole garment had a hang-dog look that no amount of pressing could get rid of. What little shape it first had was soon lost At a glance you could tell this ready-made from custom-made—just as you can now.

When BENJAMIN Clothes were first marketed the other fellows shoot that marketed the other fellows shock their heads and predicted failure. "Where is the profit," they seked "in retailing garments that dost as much to tailor as custom-made?" Thirty years of success have shown the wisdom of pro-ducing fine clothes at reasonable prices. Today the highest type of ready-for-service apparel bears this famous trade-mark.
